Accountability Statement

The Knowledge Network Corporation Service Plan was prepared under the Board's direction in accordance with the Budget Transparency and Accountability Act and the B.C. Reporting Principles. The plan is consistent with government's strategic priorities and fiscal plan. The Board is accountable for the contents of the plan, including what has been included in the plan and how it has been reported.

To the best of our knowledge the significant assumptions, policy decisions, events and identified risks are current and have been considered in preparing this plan. The performance measures presented are consistent with Knowledge Network Corporation's mandate and goals, and focus on aspects critical to the organization's performance. The targets in this plan have been determined based on an assessment of Knowledge Network Corporation's operating environment, forecast conditions, risk assessment and past performance.

To the Honourable Andrew Wilkinson, Minister of Technology, Innovation and Citizens' Services

On behalf of Knowledge Network Corporation's Board of Directors,
I am pleased to submit our 2013/14 to 2015/16 Service Plan.

British Columbia's Knowledge Network offers trusted content from B.C. and around the world that informs, inspires and engages. Our responsibility as a public educational broadcaster is to bring diverse points of view to British Columbians: to challenge assumptions, broaden awareness, and spur the acquisition of new knowledge. This responsibility extends to our youngest viewers through Knowledge Kids, where programs, games and activities spark the imagination of children and encourage a love of learning. We serve British Columbians on any screen they choose: television, smartphone, tablet and computer.

Nini Baird, Chair

The Board and staff have recently identified five new strategic goals to lead us through 2013 to 2016:

- Expand digital platforms to serve audiences anywhere, anytime.
- Commission original British Columbian content in partnership with independent producers for multi-platform delivery.
- Engage audiences through personalized, interactive social experiences.
- Strengthen the Knowledge Network brand story and share it.
- Increase revenue through entrepreneurial and philanthropic initiatives.

Increasing engagement with British Columbians is our strategic focus over the next three years. By leveraging the most popular media platforms, we aim to strengthen our relationship with viewers and donors across the province.

We will continue to invest in original B.C. content in partnership with independent television and media producers. There are three significant projects launching in 2013/14 designed to stimulate dialogue and encourage public participation. The Emergency Room is a six-part documentary series about people who work on the front lines of emergency medicine at Vancouver General Hospital. It will follow nurses, doctors and support staff who make life and death decisions while confronting the steadily rising demand for health resources. To create a greater depth of understanding on current health care issues, a complementary website will be developed to engage citizens across the province. Working People is a series of webisodes, developed in partnership with the Labour Heritage Centre, telling the story of British Columbian workers who played extraordinary roles in the building of our province. Take Me Home is a series of documentary shorts for television and online, funded in part by the Ministry of Community, Sport and Cultural Development. It will promote the province of British Columbia through personal stories by renowned B.C. artists, athletes, and community leaders.

The Board recognizes that a timely transition to high definition (HD) is vital to remaining relevant with viewers in B.C. and to continuing the generation of revenues through philanthropic initiatives. Therefore, in fall 2013 we will launch a high definition channel for our television service. The new channel is funded exclusively through new self-generated revenues. A significant source of that new revenue is BBC Kids, a commercial-free Canadian subscription children's channel operated as a co-venture with BBC Worldwide.

Keeping pace with technological changes in the delivery of content - both on-air and online - remains an ongoing challenge. Audience growth online has been steadily increasing, resulting in increased broadband usage and associated costs. We expect this growth to accelerate with the roll out of the next phase of Knowledge.ca in 2014, which will include increased engagement opportunities for British Columbians.

Our provincial outreach will remain a core activity to connect with communities outside the Lower Mainland. Initiatives include Knowledge Partner events, workshops for independent filmmakers, participation at children and family festivals, and speaking opportunities with Chambers of Commerce, community organizations, service clubs, colleges and universities.

As B.C.'s viewer-supported public broadcaster, we rely on the generosity of over 35,000 loyal donors who last year contributed $2.9M. We are also very grateful for the ongoing commitment and support we have received from the Ministry of Citizens' Services and Open Government and the Government of British Columbia.

Our three-year plan ensures that we will continue to build on our success, offering trusted, original content in the public interest on any screen, anytime. We look forward to creating new opportunities to engage with British Columbians on the relevant issues of our time.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Nini Baird', with a stylized flourish at the end.

Nini Baird, C.M. Chair

Strategic Context

As a federally licensed broadcaster and a provincially mandated public service, British Columbia's Knowledge Network operates in a dynamic environment. Our Service Plan supports both our federal and provincial commitments, and identifies the opportunities and risks we face moving forward.

Knowledge Network's mission is to provide a trusted alternative for the commercial-free exploration of life, connecting British Columbians to the world through television, internet, and mobile platforms. We have identified five new strategic goals that will direct the organization's work over the next three years in support of this mission:

Goal 1: Expand digital platforms to serve audiences anywhere, anytime.

Goal 2: Commission original British Columbian content in partnership with independent producers for multi-platform delivery.

Goal 3: Engage audiences through personalized, interactive social experiences.

Goal 4: Strengthen the Knowledge Network brand story and share it.

Goal 5: Increase revenue through entrepreneurial and philanthropic initiatives.

Each year, the senior management team at Knowledge Network conducts a risk analysis process to determine the main factors that will affect our ability to achieve intended results.

There are four primary risks that may have an impact on our public service: revenue generation from BBC Kids, BDU (broadcast distribution undertaking) carriage of our standard definition and high definition services, increased digital distribution costs and consumption of media content from multiple devices.

The following table outlines the opportunities and mitigation strategies we have in place to address these risks.

| Area of Risk | Risk Factors and Sensitivities | Opportunity | Mitigating Strategies |
|---|---|---|--|
| Revenue Generation – BBC Kids | Broadcast industry consolidation impacts availability of content. | Favourable bundling of independent channels due to federal regulatory requirements. | Continue brand building initiatives. Obtain federal regulatory approval to increase percentage of animation programming. |
| BDU (broadcast distribution undertaking) Carriage and Province-wide Distribution | High Definition channel will displace the Standard Definition channel. | High Definition channel reaches new audiences. | Require Standard Definition carriage as a condition of High Definition carriage with BDU's. |
| Increased Digital Distribution Costs | With more viewers accessing content online, broadband usage and associated costs will increase significantly. | Audience growth through increased viewership online. | Seek sponsorship opportunities for on-demand streaming video at Knowledge.ca. |
| Asynchronous Viewing on Multiple Platforms | Building brand awareness becomes more challenging. | Retain current viewers and donors while reaching new audiences. | Acquire better understanding of user experience on mobile platforms and social networks. |

Our Strengths

To help us achieve our goals and fulfill our mandate, British Columbia's Knowledge Network:

- is available any screen, anytime (on-air, online at Knowledge.ca and KnowledgeKids.ca, and on tablets and mobile devices)
- averages a 3.9% audience share for our primetime schedule (BBM Canada Fall 2012, Vancouver Extended Market),¹
- is in good standing with the Canadian Radio-television and Telecommunications Commission,
- operates using a state-of-the-art digital platform,
- maintains strong relationships with the independent production sector in British Columbia and Canada,
- has access to international documentary markets to help finance and promote B.C. documentaries,
- has extensive experience in researching, licensing, and packaging educational digital content,
- has dedicated staff with unique skills and expertise that support our strategic direction,
- generates philanthropic revenue through donations from 35,000 loyal Knowledge Partners and our endowment fund, and
- generates entrepreneurial revenue through media partnerships and operation of a Canadian subscription children's channel.

1. Share is the percentage of the total viewing audience that are tuned in to a particular station. It is based not only on Knowledge Network's performance, but also the performance of other stations in our market.

Goals, Strategies, Measures, Targets, and Benchmarks

Benchmarks

Knowledge Network performance measures are benchmarked against past performance. As of December 2012, there are four public educational broadcasters in Canada, each using distinct measures of success based on their provincial mandates. We continue to explore opportunities to incorporate external benchmarks.

Adjustments

Goals and performance measures from the 2012/13 to 2014/15 Service Plan supported our three year strategic plan for a sustainable, improving public service. With many of the strategies implemented and solid results achieved, we have introduced a new three year strategic plan focusing on increased engagement on multiple platforms. As a result, new goals, strategies and performance measures have been established. The 2013/14 period will be a benchmark year for four performance measures that do not yet have targets. We will continue to report on performance measures that remain relevant from the 2012/13 to 2014/15 Service Plan.

Goal 1: Expand digital platforms to serve audiences anywhere, anytime.

Media consumption patterns and new technologies continue to evolve rapidly. Viewers now expect access to high quality content, anywhere and anytime they choose. To maintain its relevance, Knowledge Network must ensure its presence on new platforms as they are adopted by consumers.

Strategies

1. Launch a Knowledge Network High Definition television channel.
2. Increase out-of-home viewer access to Knowledge Network, Knowledge Kids and BBC Kids on new mobile platforms, such as the iPad and Android-powered tablet computers.

Measures

Average Weekly Reach (TV Audience)

We measure average weekly reach annually for Knowledge Prime (6pm to 12pm) and Knowledge Kids (6am to 6pm) using data from BBM Canada, the national provider of TV, radio and consumer information. Average weekly reach is the unduplicated number of people aged two years or older viewing at least one minute of programming in British Columbia. BBM Canada estimates are based on 95% confidence interval.

Total Hours Viewed in Primetime (Weekly Average)

We measure Total Hours Viewed for Knowledge Prime (6pm to 12pm) based on the fall 2012 season using data from BBM Canada.

Web Visits

We measure Knowledge Network web visits annually for both Knowledge.ca and Knowledgekids.ca using Google Analytics. Visits or sessions are defined as a period of interaction between a visitor's browser and a particular website, ending when the browser is closed or shut down.

Page Views

We measure Knowledge Network web page views annually for both Knowledge.ca and Knowledgekids.ca using Google Analytics. A page view is defined as a view of a page on a site that is being tracked by a tracking code. If a visitor hits reload after reaching the page, this will be counted as an additional page view. If a user navigates to a different page and then returns to the original page, a second page view will be recorded as well.

Total Hours on Site

We track this measure using a customized report that measure the total aggregate time spent on Knowledge.ca and KnowledgeKids.ca by all visitors in hours.

Goal 2: Commission original British Columbian content in partnership with independent producers for multi-platform delivery.

The independent production community continues to be a key partner in the creation of original content. Growth in Knowledge Network's access to external project funding together with independent producers' developing expertise in multi-platform storytelling will help ensure that we can share B.C. stories on the platforms consumers desire.

Strategies

1. Invest in British Columbian stories for distribution on multiple platforms.
2. Develop the intellectual property of the Knowledge Kids' characters, Luna, Chip and Inkie, to create new content for children and families.

Measures

Budget Commitment to Original Multiplatform Content

Knowledge Network is committed to funding independent production of original content for television and new media platforms.

Federal Funding Directed to B.C. Content and B.C. Independent Producers

Knowledge Network leverages funding from the Canada Media Fund which is directed towards B.C. independent producers and the creation of original B.C. content for television and new media platforms.

| Performance Measures | 2011/2012 Actuals | 2012/2013 Forecast | 2013/2014 Target | 2014/2015 Target | 2015/2016 Target |

Goal 3: Engage audiences through personalized, interactive social experiences.

To be sustainable over the long term, Knowledge Network must enhance our ability to engage and attract audiences. By leveraging the most popularly adopted media platforms, we will strengthen our relationship with our 1.5 million weekly viewers by creating personalized experiences with our brand.

Strategies

1. Develop Knowledge Network's interactive initiatives to pull viewers into our websites and social networks so that they may engage and interact with our content, complementing the traditional broadcast experience of pushing content out.
2. Launch personalization features on our web and mobile platforms that are driven by user preferences that encourage participation, such as personal playlists and schedules, recommendations, polls, ratings and commenting.
3. To engage audiences, create affinity clubs, such as Documentary or Drama, where registered members can engage with us and each other regularly through dialogue and discussion on subjects they are passionate about.

Measures

Engagement on Knowledge.ca

The performance measure will be established in 2013 as part of Knowledge.ca redesign.

Number of Games Played at Knowledgekids.ca

We will measure engagement on Knowledgekids.ca through user interactions with content tracked independently from a web page or screen load using Google Analytics.

| Performance Measures | 2011/2012 Actuals | 2012/2013 Forecast | 2013/2014 Target | 2014/2015 Target | 2015/2016 Target |

2. In 2012/13 new games and activities increasing interactive offerings for children were introduced.

Goal 4: Strengthen the Knowledge Network brand story and share it.

Knowledge Network has grown from a single analogue television channel to a media network with multiple channels and web offerings. It's imperative that current and prospective audiences identify Knowledge Network as a broadcasting and communication service that keeps pace with change and is dedicated to serving audiences anywhere, anytime. Now more than ever, the power of online networks offers a cost effective way to tell our brand story to a broader audience.

Strategies

1. Evolve the brand to emphasize that Knowledge Network is British Columbia's multi-channel, multi-platform, commercial-free public service; and strengthen its appeal as an organization with charitable status.
2. Broaden awareness of the Knowledge Kids by participating in events targeted at children and families.
3. Cultivate key influencers and organizations that have their own targeted networks, and facilitate their willingness to share the Knowledge Network story.
4. Improve the presence and visibility of Knowledge Network throughout the province with events in and outreach to B.C.'s diverse cultural communities.
5. Expand our presence on the Internet by launching promotional channels on YouTube and Facebook.

Measures

Public Awareness of Knowledge Network and Knowledge Kids

We conduct research each spring using Ipsos Reid's B.C. Reid Express Omnibus Surveys to measure awareness of Knowledge Network and Knowledge Kids in British Columbia. The study is completed using an online survey methodology using a random sample consisting of Ipsos Canadian panel members who are B.C. residents and are at least 18 years of age. The sample is balanced to be representative of the B.C. population according to Statistics Canada on age, gender, income and education.

| Performance Measures | 2011/2012 Actuals | 2012/2013 Forecast | 2013/2014 Target | 2014/2015 Target | 2015/2016 Target |

| PUBLIC AWARENESS OF KNOWLEDGE KIDS (New Survey Question) | N/A | N/A | Benchmark Year | TBD | TBD |

Goal 5: Increase revenue through entrepreneurial and philanthropic initiatives.

Knowledge Network will continue to improve its long term sustainability. We will build on the success of the BBC Kids channel acquisition by seeking out new opportunities to generate entrepreneurial revenue that can, in turn, support the public service. The new technology systems we now have in place will allow us to expand our philanthropic initiatives in ways that previously were not viable.

Strategies

Philanthropic

1. Convert a larger percentage of our 1.5 million weekly viewers to donors by employing new solicitation tactics enabled by our new constituent relationship management database (CRM).
2. Retain current donors by strengthening relationships through personalized stewardship, increased interaction online and at face to face events, resulting in a higher renewal rate, increased gift size and more additional gifts.
3. Continue and expand our Major Gift and Legacy Gift programs with individual donors.
4. Identify opportunities to solicit corporate financial support, and develop action plans for cultivating these prospects.

Entrepreneurial

1. Explore revenue generating opportunities for expanded carriage of the Knowledge Network signal in new markets.
2. Develop partnership opportunities that leverage our broadcasting strengths and align with our competencies.

Measures

Revenue Generated by Knowledge Partner Donations

We measure this activity by tracking Knowledge Partner donations recognized through our financial software system and donor database.

Revenue Generated by Entrepreneurial Initiatives

Overall revenue generated from entrepreneurial initiatives is tracked annually through our financial software system.

| Performance Measures | 2011/2012 Actuals | 2012/2013 Forecast | 2013/2014 Target | 2014/2015 Target | 2015/2016 Target |

Key Assumptions and Financial Risks

Our Summary Financial Outlook is based on the following assumptions:

1. Financial information for Knowledge Network Corporation was prepared based on current Canadian Generally Accepted Accounting Principles (GAAP).³
2. Knowledge Network continues to receive the annual operating grant from the Government of British Columbia through the Ministry of Citizens' Services and Open Government.
3. British Columbians continue to support public educational broadcasting through individual donations and planned giving.
4. Knowledge Network generates new revenue through a management fee from the operation of the Canadian subscription children's channel, BBC Kids.
5. Knowledge Network continues to have equitable access to the Canada Media Fund for original content.

Knowledge Network's new three-year strategic plan is fully funded through our annual operating grant from the Ministry of Citizens' Services and Open Government and revenue generated from philanthropic and entrepreneurial initiatives. Our strategic partnership with BBC Worldwide to operate BBC Kids is funding a new high definition channel for our television service and ensuring a long-term supply of core programming for both BBC Kids and Knowledge Network.

Donations from Knowledge Partners support more than 70% of the programming on-air and online. We have experienced tremendous success with our fundraising efforts but are expecting slower growth over the next few years due to continued global economic uncertainty. The Endowment Fund is a vital part of Knowledge Network's ongoing plan for continued growth to ensure that commercial-free programming will continue to be available for all British Columbians to enjoy.

Minor capital upgrades of the digital broadcast facility have been self-funded, however, we anticipate replacement of major capital items within the next three years. With audience growth online steadily increasing, we are experiencing increased broadband usage and associated costs. Options are being explored to address the increase in digital distribution costs.

3. The corporation's treatment of broadcast rights is consistent with that established in prior year financial statements. For Public Sector entities specifically, GAAP no longer allows for the capitalization of intangible assets such as broadcast rights. To ensure the ongoing usefulness of the financial statements to users, the corporation will continue to capitalize broadcast rights and amortize them into income as matching revenue is earned.
