Strategic Direction

In 2026/27, the Government of British Columbia will prioritize support for people by taking action to make life better for everyone.

Despite a challenging fiscal environment due to global uncertainty, trade relationship reordering, and low resource prices, over the past year Government made significant progress on efforts to reduce costs for British Columbians, hire more doctors and nurses, and build more homes, hospitals and schools, faster. Government will continue to advance these key priorities even as tariffs, trade policies, and instability outside of the province's borders continue to put pressure on the province's finances.

Ongoing fiscal pressure means all parts of Government must continue to do their part to maximize efficiencies and make sure every dollar counts.

To respond to these extraordinary times, Government will focus on expanding trade and investment both within Canada and abroad and delivering major projects that offer good jobs and opportunities for people and communities. This focus on economic growth and prosperity is critical to delivering the revenue needed to provide services and infrastructure.

Good relationships and mutually beneficial partnerships with First Nations are critical to building a better future for everyone in British Columbia. Government will continue working diligently to implement the Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples Act Action Plan. Through collaboration and open dialogue, we aim to foster trust, stability and certainty for all.

This 2026/27 service plan outlines how the Ministry of Indigenous Relations and Reconciliation will support the Government's priorities and selected action items identified in the Minister's most recent Mandate Letter.

Purpose of the Ministry

The Ministry of Indigenous Relations and Reconciliation (the Ministry or MIRR) guides and helps coordinate the Province of British Columbia's efforts to achieve true and lasting reconciliation with Indigenous Peoples<sup>1</sup> by working in respectful partnerships that recognize inherent rights.

Reconciliation is important to everyone as we work together to address historic wrongs through the path laid out by the Truth and Reconciliation Commission \(TRC\) of Canada: Calls to Action. These efforts create a better province for all.

As the first province in Canada to recognize and uphold Indigenous Peoples' human rights in law through the Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples Act (Declaration Act), British

Columbia is implementing the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples (UN Declaration) as our shared framework for reconciliation.

The Declaration Act supports the B.C. government to deepen relationships with Indigenous Peoples through an action plan that outlines measures to advance the objectives of the UN Declaration. The alignment of provincial laws with the UN Declaration enables government to enter into shared decision-making agreements with a broad range of Indigenous governments.

The Ministry furthers reconciliation with Indigenous Peoples by collaboratively developing policy and practices, and negotiating and implementing proactive, enduring agreements, partnerships, and treaties based on recognition of rights. The Ministry's focus is to build lasting relationships with Indigenous Peoples through flexible agreements that can evolve over time and collaborative approaches to policy making.

The Ministry engages with First Nations governments, communities, organizations, as well as treaty, federal, and municipal partners, stakeholders, and the public. While reconciliation is a whole-of-government responsibility, the Ministry provides guidance and leadership to other areas of government on establishing and enhancing relationships with Indigenous Peoples.

The Ministry works shoulder to shoulder with partners and communities to advance B.C.s Reconciliation commitments. Systemic shifts to address the legacy of harms are achieved by prioritizing collaboration and engagement with Indigenous Peoples through anti-racist, trauma-informed and culturally safe practices. Strengthening relationships with Indigenous communities<sup>2</sup> and incorporating Indigenous knowledge and perspectives improves social and economic outcomes for Indigenous Peoples and all British Columbians.

The Ministry is also responsible for the partnership and collaboration with the Minister's Advisory Council on Indigenous Women, which provides advice to the B.C. government on how to improve the quality of life for Indigenous women in B.C., and the First Peoples' Cultural Council (FPCC), a provincial Crown corporation formed by the Government of British Columbia in 1990 to administer the First Peoples' Heritage, Language and Culture Program.

<sup>2</sup> The term "communities" means the diversity of Indigenous communities as defined by Indigenous Peoples and includes descriptions such as urban, rural, metropolitan, remote, land-based and reserve.

Performance Planning

Appendix A: Declaration Act Secretariat

Purpose of the Organization

The Declaration Act Secretariat (DAS) is a central agency within the provincial government that works to coordinate and assist the cross-government effort to work in consultation and cooperation with Indigenous Peoples to implement the Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples Act (Declaration Act). This includes:

- Ensuring provincial legislation is consistent with the United Nations Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples (UN Declaration) and is developed in consultation and cooperation with Indigenous Peoples, as per section 3 of the Declaration Act. This work is known as the alignment of laws.
- Developing and implementing an action plan, in consultation and co-operation with Indigenous Peoples, to achieve the objectives of the UN Declaration as per section 4 of the Declaration Act.
- Regular reporting to the legislature to monitor progress on the implementation of the action plan and the alignment of laws, through the tabling of an annual report, as per section 5 of the Declaration Act.
- Supporting the legislative implementation of sections 6 and 7 (agreements with Indigenous governing bodies).

Strategic Direction

The Declaration Act was unanimously passed by the Legislative Assembly in 2019. The Act puts in place positive obligations for the Province:

- Requires B.C. to ensure laws are consistent with the UN Declaration (s. 3).
- Requires an action plan to achieve the objectives of the UN Declaration and an annual report on that plan (s. 4 / 5).
- Provides a legislative mechanism for the Province to enter into agreements with Indigenous governing bodies (s. 6 / 7).

The Secretariat's core functions are to:

- develop processes and measures to guide the Province in implementation of the Declaration Act;
- assist ministries in advancing legislative initiatives in alignment with the UN Declaration and in meeting legislative alignment obligations;
- support ministries to implement the actions for which they are responsible in the action plan developed under section 4 of the Declaration Act;
- support ministries to report on action implementation and coordinate the development of the annual report; and
- provide guidance and advice to ministries on undertaking consultation and cooperation with Indigenous Peoples;
- work with Indigenous Partners to inform government's legislative agenda and help set legislative priorities;
- serve in an interlocutor role for the Province and Indigenous partners.

Reporting directly to the Minister of Indigenous Relations and Reconciliation, but distinct from the Ministry of Indigenous Relations and Reconciliation, the Secretariat remains at the forefront of providing guidance for legislative implementation and system-wide change leadership.

Appendix B: Public Sector Organizations

As of February 2026, the Ministry of Indigenous Relations and Reconciliation is responsible and accountable for the following:

BC Treaty Commission<sup>3</sup>

The BC Treaty Commission is an independent body responsible for facilitating treaty negotiations among First Nations and the governments of Canada and British Columbia.

First Peoples' Cultural Council

The First Peoples' Cultural Council is a First Nation-run Crown corporation that supports the revitalization of Indigenous languages, arts, culture, and heritage in British Columbia.

Haida Gwaii Management Council<sup>4</sup>

The Haida Gwaii Management Council is a strategic-level joint decision-making body for land and natural resource decisions on Haida Gwaii, as set out in the Kunst'aa guu – Kunst'aayah Reconciliation Protocol.

Minister's Advisory Council on Indigenous Women

The Minister's Advisory Council on Indigenous Women provides advice to the Government of British Columbia on how to improve the quality of life of Indigenous women across B.C.

<sup>3</sup> With reference to the BC Treaty Commission, responsibility and accountability is limited and defined through the Treaty Commission Act.

<sup>4</sup> With reference to the Haida Gwaii Management Council, responsibility and accountability is limited and defined through the Kunst'aa guu – Kunst'aayah Reconciliation Protocol.

Appendix C: Minister Mandate Letter

July 17, 2025

Honourable Spencer Chandra Herbert
Minister of Indigenous Relations and Reconciliation
Parliament Buildings
Victoria, BC V8V 1X4

Dear Minister Chandra Herbert:

Congratulations on your appointment as Minister of Indigenous Relations and Reconciliation at a critical time for our province. Serving as a member of the executive council is a privilege and responsibility which I am confident you will fulfill with integrity and a commitment to the people of our province.

British Columbians have trusted us with a mandate to deliver for them in ways that make a tangible difference in their daily lives. They expect us to listen and learn from people of different perspectives – and work together to make things better for everyone.

Specifically, we will tackle the challenges people worry about at the kitchen table:

- Grow the economy by creating good jobs across British Columbia. We will collaborate with businesses, workers, and communities to attract investments in both new and traditional sectors as well as emerging sectors of the economy. This approach will bring certainty for business, security for workers, and generate the wealth needed to support the essential services British Columbians rely on.
- Reduce costs for families, including by helping people access homes they can afford through support for first-time homebuyers, increasing the supply of rental housing stock, and stronger measures to crack down on housing speculation.

- Strengthen health care by expanding access to family doctors and recruiting and training more health professionals, ensuring that every British Columbian can access the care they need, no matter where they live. We will also increase access to addictions treatment and provide help for people whose struggles require intensive supports.
- Make our neighbourhoods and communities safer by working with law enforcement and social agencies to address street disorder, crack down on organized crime, and do all we can to ensure repeat offenders stay behind bars.

Our commitment to take action on climate change remains foundational and will be key to a healthy and prosperous BC for future generations.

Underlying all this work is our partnership with Indigenous peoples. Advancing reconciliation, implementing the Declaration on the Rights of Indigenous Peoples Act and working in partnership with First Nations rights-holders to advance shared interests is the responsibility of every Minister.

Over this mandate I expect you to prioritize making progress on the following:

- In order to protect key services that British Columbians rely on, work with the Minister of Finance to review all existing ministry programs and initiatives to ensure programs remain relevant, are efficient, grow the economy, and deliver an improved quality of life for Indigenous peoples in the province. This is important in the context of current Provincial budget constraints and overall efficiency.
- Build partnerships that advance reconciliation in measurable ways and create tangible benefits for First Nations and all British Columbians, such as building more affordable housing, generating clean energy, creating good jobs and protecting our environment.
- Ensure that at the end of this term, people living in Indigenous communities in the province have seen an improvement in their quality of life through our government's interventions by prioritizing initiatives that make a meaningful difference in the lives of Indigenous peoples in this province.
- Continue work with First Nations partners, local governments and agencies to implement treaties and other agreements.
- Given the strains of conflict over boundaries, and the legal costs and uncertainty associated with unclear boundaries, work with First Nations partners to prioritize Action 1.1 of the Declaration Act Action Plan relating to overlap and boundary dispute resolution.

- Through the Declaration Act Secretariat, lead work with the Attorney General to ensure alignment of BC's laws with the rights of Indigenous peoples.
- Lead work to review and update the Declaration Act Action Plan by 2027, for the next five-year period.
- Work with the Parliamentary Secretary for Anti-Racism Initiatives on anti-Indigenous racism.
- In cooperation with the Minister of Water, Land and Resource Stewardship, continue to develop and implement approaches to accelerate agreed-upon land transfers that enhance First Nation community and economic development.

As you are aware, we have established an accord with the BC Green Caucus that supports our shared commitment to ensuring stable governance focused on delivering progress and tangible outcomes for British Columbians. The commitments in that accord complement the direction in these mandate letters.

As a Cabinet, we will uphold the highest standards of ethics, collaboration, and good conduct in service of the public, and as a Minister of the Crown, you are expected to review, understand, and act according to the Members' Conflict of Interest Act. You will establish a collaborative working relationship with your Deputy Minister and the public servants under their direction, who provide the professional, non-partisan advice that is fundamental to delivering on our government's priorities. Your Minister's Office must meet the highest standards for integrity and provide a respectful, rewarding environment for all staff.

The work we have ahead takes place in a profoundly challenging geopolitical environment. Close friends and neighbours to our south are contemplating imposing draconian tariffs on our products that would hurt both Americans and Canadians. Our allies internationally face governmental instability. Hate and racism are on the rise around the world. Artificial intelligence breakthroughs with unclear implications and astonishing potential are announced daily. Global inflation, snarled supply chains, and war are threatening global economic growth and prosperity as well as the transition to a low-carbon economy.

We have an obligation to protect and defend British Columbians, as well as seize opportunities, in these uncertain times.

The good news is that we have everything we need to succeed, and we will succeed. British Columbia's people – our workers, entrepreneurs, business leaders, artists, and innovators – are among the most talented in the world. We are home to world-class educational institutions and public services. Our natural beauty is unmatched, we have internationally envied resources, and we are one of the most diverse places on the planet. Your job is to help us leverage these advantages in perilous times.

Use this mandate letter to guide your work, and do not be afraid to challenge assumptions, or be innovative, bold and aggressive in achieving the goals set out for you and your Ministry by the people of this province.

Thank you for joining me in the work ahead.

Sincerely,
